'VARSITY BUCKS HIGH SCHOOL

East Bench Players Line Up in First Scrimmage.

THE TEAM SHOWS UP WELL

WILL BE IN GOOD FORM FOR BOULDER SATURDAY.

The 'Varsity team had its first real ernoon when the squad lined up against the sturdy bunch of students that rep-resent the West Side High school this season. These two teams held a practice game, and although it was for the purpose of teaching the men of both aggregations the real thing in football it could not properly be called a con-test in which the score cut any figure The coaching force of both aggrega-tions were on the field during the prac-tice and coached the different players in their positions, and the full hour's work resulted in a great amount of good, especially to the 'Varsity.

The east bench boys succeeded in making several touchdowns while the lighter High school boys did not once get across the 'Varsity goal line. This, lowever, does not mean that the latter students were not in it by any means, for they certainly hammered the 'Varsity line and for a good many gains at that. The students played much better ball, as a team showing more experience at the game, but this was due to the number of new men on the 'Varsity line. Some of them were under fire for the first time, but these players showed wonderful improvement as the game progressed. In fact, at the end of the practice the 'Varsity squad seemed a different aggregation from the one that lined up at the beginning of play. Their work was much etter and their gains longer and more frequent, showing the good effect of the coaching done during the game.

New Men Show Up Well.

Two of the new men in the line, Morrow and Hope, especially showed the lack of experience at the beginning, but their work at the end of the day leads one to believe the state of the local stoday and Cincinnati won an easy victory. Attendance, Store: lack of experience at the began lack of experience at the began lack of experience at the began lack of experience and strong players before many days nave passed. look to their laurels for a place on the team.

Bennion at full back and Wade at quarter are stronger this year than ever, and the 'varsity will have a hard time to improve on Davis and Russell at ends. Yesterday's line-up was notably weak at center, as "Fat" Robbins did not get around in time to take his place on the team, but with "Fat" in the game there will be a different in the game there are the game there will be a different in the game th

It also showed that the squad needs lots of actual football experience, like they had yesterday. They started out very ragged, but at the fluish were using their heads and try-

High School is Strong.

But while fans are looking at the work of the 'varsity they do not want to overlook the aggregation from the High school. This team bids fair to be the strongest the school has had for years, and Ogden is liable to meet a surprise when the team goes up against the local high school. The oys have team work down to perfec tion and are playing a game which is not usually done by a team until after at least two months' practice. Their line bucking was a surprise to every one, and they frequently tore holes in the bigger 'varsity line. Ogden, Wednesday, Sept. 28. COUNTESS GOES EAST.

Tilted Lady of England Affected by Altitude While Crossing Continent.

Lady Hamilton Laughlin of England, who was detained in Ogden and taken in charge by the county officials about a week ago, yesterday resumed her journey eastward. Lady Laughlin is about 50 years of age and is a great traveler, this being her third trip around the world. She is somewhat eccentric and often travels alone, sending her servants on ahead of leaving them to follow. In crossing the mountains the high altitude affected her mind, and at Ogden she was taken in charge by the founty authorities, the railroad people disbelieving her claim that she was an English countess. After a short stay in the county something that has never happened at the 'varsity before. When the season closed last year, the conditions of football at the 'varsity were such that it was necessary to get the best possible man at the head of the East bench boys this year. Jimmy had just finished the season as captain, and the members of the team concluded that Wade would be the best man for this year, so he was elected unamimously. Wade plays the position of quarterback and as his friends say. "He is the greatest ever."

BAD MAN MAY GO FREE.

Ballantyne Fails to Identify Supposed Sheep Thief.

Thomas Ballantyne yesterday called at the county jail, but could not identify James Waiker, alias James Young, who is charged with stealing a bunch of Bailantyne's sheep near the Monte Cristo divide. One of the herders of the sheep will be down this morning to look at the accused man. It is the opinion of Mr. Ballantyne that the herder will not be able to identify this man as the one seen driving the sheep, as there were two able to identify this man as the one seen driving the sheep, as there were two fellows about the camp, and it is his opinion that the one still at large is the one they would be able to convict.
